DEWEY READY FOR CAMARA

Strange Conduct of Big German Cruiser Toward Transports.

Vigilance of American Ships at Caviti Illustrated—Reported Cession of an Island to Germany.

Manila Bay, June 28, via Hongkong, July 1.—The reported sailing of a powerful Spanish fleet to attempt to recapture the Philippine islands is the principal topic of conversation aboard Admiral Dewey's ships.

But there is no fear of Camara's squadron. The American vessels now here, re-enforced by the cruiser Charleston and by both or either of the monitors, Monterey and Monadnock, will be able to make a strong fight. An American battle ship would be a great and a desirable addition, because the monitors are slower of movement, but Admiral Dewey has perfect confidence in the force he will have by the time Camara can get here.

An immediate action is looked for upon the arrival of the troops, as soon as possible after they enter the bay. Insurgents will confer with the United States Army and Navy commanders, relative to combining forces or co-operating in whatever way may seem most advantageous.

A German launch ran along side the flagship Olympia after dark last night. It was picked up by a searchlight and a shot was fired as a warning, but it continued advancing. Two more shots were quickly fired, whereupon the launch stopped. It had a message from the German Admiral for Admiral Dewey. The incident illustrates the watchfulness aboard American vessels, and indicates how Spanish torpedo boats would fare if any attack were attempted.

London, July 4.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Hongkong says the triumphal entry of the American transports into Manila bay was marred by an unpleasant incident, for which the Germans were responsible. As the ships came up the bay they were closely followed by the German cruiser Kaiserin Augusta. The impression of everybody watching the vessels was that she was closely observing the American forces, and she was also trying to show the Americans and Spanish that she represented a nation which must be reckoned with in the present crisis.

Germany's attitude in this matter is regarded by the Americans and Englishmen as highly reprehensible and as greatly lacking in respect for the United States. Many German merchants in Manila are equally displeased with the action of their war ships.

According to one account the Spanish gunboat Leyte was at Pampangas, where she was harassed by the rebels, and her crew nearly starved. She tried to make Manila harbor three miles distant, but was captured by the American auxiliary cruiser Hugh McCulloch. The Governor of Pampangas and 180 officers and men were aboard of her.

Manila, July 1, via Hongkong, July 4.—It is reported that Yalo, in the Sulu islands, a part of the Philippine group, has been ceded to Germany by Spain. The story comes from the highest authority. It is declared that Germany will maintain the autonomy of the place.

"Our customers say you manufacture three of the best remedies on earth," said the mercantile firm of Haas, Harris, Brim & McLain, of Dawson, Ga., in a recent letter to the Chamberlain Medicine Co. This is the universal verdict. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the finest preparation in the world for rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, quinsy, sore throat, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, pains and swellings. A bottle of this liniment in the house, will save a great deal of suffering. Buy it at Benson, Smith Co., drug store. *

DRESSING TABLES.

SUGGESTIVE SKETCHES AND HINTS FOR HOME DECORATORS.

The General Idea in Toilet Tables—Lace Fluted Ruffles and Ribbons Form the Usual Trimming—Striped Cretonne and Dotted Swiss Find Great Favor.

Away from the big art and decorative centers, and hungry for tasteful surroundings, are many women who with an inborn facility for creating the things they desire need only a suggestion and a start in the right direction. For such home women who rejoice in homemade articles the dressing table is a strong point toward the accomplishment of satisfactory interior decoration. It can be made a charming object and the center of the scheme for a whole room. Nearly every one has an idea of the mode of making and covering the ordinary wooden dressing table. In this article are simply reproduced some suggestive illustrations and hints as to drapery and ornamentation originally presented by The Decorator and Furnisher:

In all toilet tables the general idea should be one where a delicacy of tint is happily combined. Pale blue silk with point esprit is always available. In fact, all these decorations are a rule to themselves. If for a pink room, the thin drapery should cover well the tone of pink, especially if it be one of decided hue. By the adding of certain filmy materials, such as lace or fluted ruffles of some four or five inches wide, the scheme is sure to be one which as an artistic plan is well secured, and to set off the whole nothing is prettier than a pretty ribbon either in satin or figured, which, when tied into bows and loops, forms for this drapery a side decoration.

For the dainty bedroom the striped cretonne is often employed, particularly those in which stripes, narrow and wide, complement a running vine or pretty floral decoration. In all draperies of this sort the white background is preferable, making for the pattern a cleanliness of appearance that is especially refreshing to the eye and a charm as a color scheme. To make this unusually attractive the ruffles can be closely plaited or gathered into an easy and flowing style—the lower edge trimmed in a narrow ribbon or inexpensive lace, the curtains well looped back with a ribbon in solid or flower effects to match the goods which furnish the plan.

But to the young girl who perhaps has hankerings for womanly belongings then the dotted swiss should claim her attention—a stylish affair in big dots, fine in quality and of a slight tone of cream, just a little off the white. For this the hue considered as the dressing slip should be a delicate yellow or tender green, one of those lemon colored tints or a tone of apple green, as desired. Nowadays the newer silk furnishings beautifully, but is expensive, so that to make it of a price that is available for all the fine satens in any of these two shades can be obtained and do handsome duty as the decorative foundation. Dotted swiss can be employed in as small a dot as a pin head if desired, or in a circle as large as a 10 cent piece. Either will do, but all are equally ornamental.

One View of a Moot Point.

It may be said that the little word "My" placed before the word "dear" has a significance of its own. When used between ladies thus, "My dear Mrs. A.," it is to devote an extra amount of cordiality and friendliness, and again when a gentleman so writes to a lady of his acquaintance it has the same meaning. On the other hand, "My dear Mr. B.," is seldom or never written by ladies to their men acquaintances, "Dear Mr. B.," being considered sufficiently affectionate. Elderly ladies, however, are outside of this rule, and write "My dear Mr. B." to men whom they have known as boys.

Pretty Summer Work.

For silk curtains to be hung on standing bookcases or shelves used as medicine closets either old rose or yellow is very popular. The Decorator and Furnisher suggests that at one side there can be given an outlining in gilt, the Japanese gold thread couched on in some conventional figure. This showy ornamentation can also form a border for the bottom if desired. This is pretty summer work, which fills up the time for the visitor, who generally carries away with her pick up work of one kind or another.

How to Make Mock Pate de Foie Gras.

Take four livers and four gizzards. Pare all the tough white skin from the latter, cover with boiling hot water and simmer for three hours. Add the livers and cook for half an hour longer. Drain, wipe dry and when cold pound the livers to a paste. Simmer together two tablespoonfuls of chopped onion for ten minutes and strain, pressing out all the water. Mix this with the liver paste and add one tablespoonful of Worcester shire and salt and pepper to taste. Butter a small glazed jar and pack in the mixture, putting here and there a small square piece of the gizzard to represent truffle. Cover the jar, set in a pan of boiling water and steam for half an hour. When cold, pour over sufficient melted butter to cover the meat and keep in a cold place. In winter this will keep nicely for two or three weeks and makes a delightful filling for sandwiches.

How to Make a Nice Breakfast Dish.

A delicious breakfast dish can be made as follows: Keep the remains of cold boiled tongue. Hang it up until quite dry and hard. Then grate as much as is required on a grater. Put this into a small saucepan with enough cream to make it into a nice paste. Add pepper and salt to taste. Warm up, but not boil, and serve on small squares of buttered toast.

How to Whip Cream.

Put one pint of thick cream in a stone bowl. Then with an egg whip beat the cream till thick, taking care not to beat it too long; in that case it will turn to butter and be ruined. Set the whipped cream for several hours on ice or in a cool place. In serving take the cream from the top, which you will find quite firm and will float on chocolate quite a while. If you wish to use gelatin, put one teaspoonful of granulated gelatin in a cup with one tablespoonful of cold water. Let it stand five minutes. Then set the cup in a pan of hot water on the stove. Stir until the gelatin is dissolved. Let it cool off and add it slowly to a pint of whipped cream while beating constantly. Place for one hour on ice or set in a cool place.

How to Make Glass Icing.

Take a cup of light brown sugar and two spoonfuls of water, a very small spoonful of butter and a few drops of lemon extract. Boil eight minutes and pour over the cake while hot, spreading it evenly.

How to Make Potato Soup.

Four large potatoes, a large onion and stalk of celery boiled till soft; then rub through a colander. Add a quart boiling milk, tablespoon of butter and salt and pepper to taste.

Hon. C. B. Bush, president of the Gilmer County (W. Va.) Court, says that he has had three cases of flux in his family, during the past summer, which he cured in less than a week with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Bush also states, that in some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day.—Glenville, W. Va. Pathfinder. This remedy has been used in nine epidemics of flux and one of cholera, with perfect success. It can always be depended upon for bowel complaint, even in its most severe forms. Every family should keep it at hand. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Benson, Smith Co., General Agents.
